The Maclaurin Art Gallery

April – December 2012

Secrets and Lilies by Liz Knox

Liz Knox
Singular
25th March – 7th May

A major retrospective of work from one of Scotland's leading painters. The exhibition shows the development of her work over the past forty years through paintings, drawings and sketchbook studies. Liz Knox studied under Sir Robin Philipson and David Michie at Edinburgh School of Art.

Since graduating in 1971, Liz Knox has exhibited regularly in Britain and has works in collections in Europe, the Middle East and USA.

Liz is a Past President of Paisley Art Institute and has received various awards for her work including the Aspect Prize in 2003.

Many of the paintings on show in the exhibition are for sale.

CHANGEOVER OF THE MACLAURIN ART GALLERY - Week 8th to 12th May

Royal Scottish Society of Painters in Watercolour

Summer Exhibition
13th May – 10th June

In early summer, the Maclaurin Art Gallery will host an exhibition of recent work by members of the Royal Scottish Society of Painters in Watercolour. The society was founded in 1876 and its present day membership includes artists of international reputation, in Britain and Scotland. Part of the remit of the RSW in recent times is to take their exhibitions out to a wider audience across Scotland. Visitors to the galleries at Rozelle will have opportunity to see a diverse range of subject matter and styles executed in watercolour by contemporary Scottish artists.

CHANGEOVER OF THE MACLAURIN ART GALLERY - Week 11th to 20th June

Maclaurin Art Exhibition 2012

Art and Craft from South Ayrshire Schools
21st June – 22nd July

First launched in 1977, this annual art exhibition showcases the creativity of pupils of pre-5, inclusive and primary schools, and the expressive and design work of S1, S2 and S3 in secondary schools in South Ayrshire. A popular exhibition for all ages to visit, it contains a vibrant and fascinating display of over 1,000 individual and group works, which include paintings, drawings, textiles and jewellery, ceramics and three-dimensional works in mixed media.

Ayr Sketch Club

Members' Exhibition
29th July – 19th August

Ayr Sketch Club, founded in 1901, continues to maintain the spirit of its founding and early artist members with a selection of recent paintings by current members. It is a lively group in which professional, amateur and lay members contribute to the creative activities incorporated in the annual syllabus. For the annual exhibition in the Maclaurin Galleries, works by well-known artists are on display alongside those of aspiring artists, thus continuing the tradition of the club in the promotion of the Fine Arts.

Make a U Turn by Liza Green

Edge-textileartists-scotland

A Stitch in Rhyme
26th August – 24th September

Edge-textileartists-scotland formed when three groups of professional textile artists from Edinburgh, Dundee and Glasgow, joined together in sharing a common goal to promote excellence in all aspects of contemporary textile art.

Observed drawing is the foundation of the creative process within 'edge', and today's large membership is drawn from a broad background. The strength of work produced by 'edge' members today, lies in technical expertise; diversity of subject matter and a challenging and innovative approach to mixed media art.
