

Statements, questions and answers arising from the Materials and Recycling Workshops

Small/Medium sized companies don't produce enough waste to justify recycling.

How can gyproc be recycled?

What about toxic fumes (in a fire) from using ceiling tiles that have a recycled content?

Collection points for recycling need to be local to avoid long journeys of the waste to be recycled.

It should be easier for builders to obtain materials with a recycled content.