

South Ayrshire is situated in a beautiful location in Scotland with easy access to road and rail networks. Our diverse area includes the towns of Ayr, Girvan, Maybole, Prestwick and Troon as well as small rural villages, coastline and farmland. As a Council, we are committed to raising standards, delivering excellent services and ensuring every child and young person achieves success. We're continuing to drive forward an ambitious improvement agenda and we're looking for outstanding leaders to help us achieve this – people who can demonstrate leadership skills that inspire, encourage, motivate and support young people, staff and parents.

PRINCIPAL EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGIST

We take a holistic approach to meeting our children's needs. Psychological Services plays a crucial role in ensuring the services we deliver are innovative, flexible and outcomes-focused. The Principal Educational Psychologist will require to be highly-motivated, analytical and committed to the continuous improvement of Children's Services. We're looking for someone with drive, passion and enthusiasm combined with the relevant educational qualifications and professional registration.
