 Seconded by – I Wilson

5. TCC REPORTS.

6. Open Forum – no one to speak.

7. Noted that are still looking for a treasurer and if anyone is interested in doing this role.

8. Events – George thanked all for help at Gala day and taxi day. George read some points from his report which was sent to all councillors. Thank you to David, Christine and Robert for help and stalls being set up. It was mentioned by some that the children love coming along to Troon for the annual taxi day. £5,500 was raised by Girvans to help towards taxi day.

Odd Shop – promotion – plenty of forms available, Alistair put on website also.

Heritage – delay, working on this with Alistair and will get a link on website set up.

Thank you to Diane, Fiona, Ian for their chaperoning of Gala Queens and families.

SAC did a good job of setting up stalls for gala day.

Troon Vision 2030 – History, work of everyone Troon Together and Troon development trust. The self-assessment which is due each year requires to be completed and this will include best practice and local vision. Continuous improvement survey asked CC their vision going forward and this can be generated for public input.

Planning – Morrisons Petrol station update, planning application from Wales, as these are being sold off. Include electric vehicle points.

Licensing – Nicky, Andy and Diane can deal with in future.

Train Station – Discussed sub contractor finished, week or so to come off site. Target to be ready for the Open, still working towards this and may not be totally finished by then, but operational. Ramps will be on trains for wheelchair users.

Calmac – buses from Harbour to Glasgow twice a day.

Xmas Lights – 4 in depot at McCalls Avenue, will speak to Ian knight about getting these transported to Troon.
