What is the Health and Social Care Partnership?

The Public Bodies (Joint Working) (Scotland) Act which established integrated health and social care partnerships came into effect on 2 April 2014. The main purpose of Integration is to improve the wellbeing of people who use health and social care services, particularly those whose needs are complex and require support from both health and social care.

Integration also aims to:

- ❖ Improve the quality and consistency of services for patients, carers, service users and their families;
- ❖ Provide seamless, joined up, high quality health and social care services to care for people at home, or in a homely setting, where it is safe to do so; and
- ❖ Ensure resources are used effectively and efficiently to deliver services that meet the needs of the increasing number of people with longer term and/or complex needs.

Introduction to HSCP

South Ayrshire HSCP brings together a wide range of community-based health, social care and social work services in South Ayrshire. Services are provided by the HSCP or commissioned by us from another provider.

In South Ayrshire, the HSCP delivers and commissions a broad range of services, meaning the HSCP is in contact with citizens at all stages of life. Services delegated by South Ayrshire Council and the NHS cover:

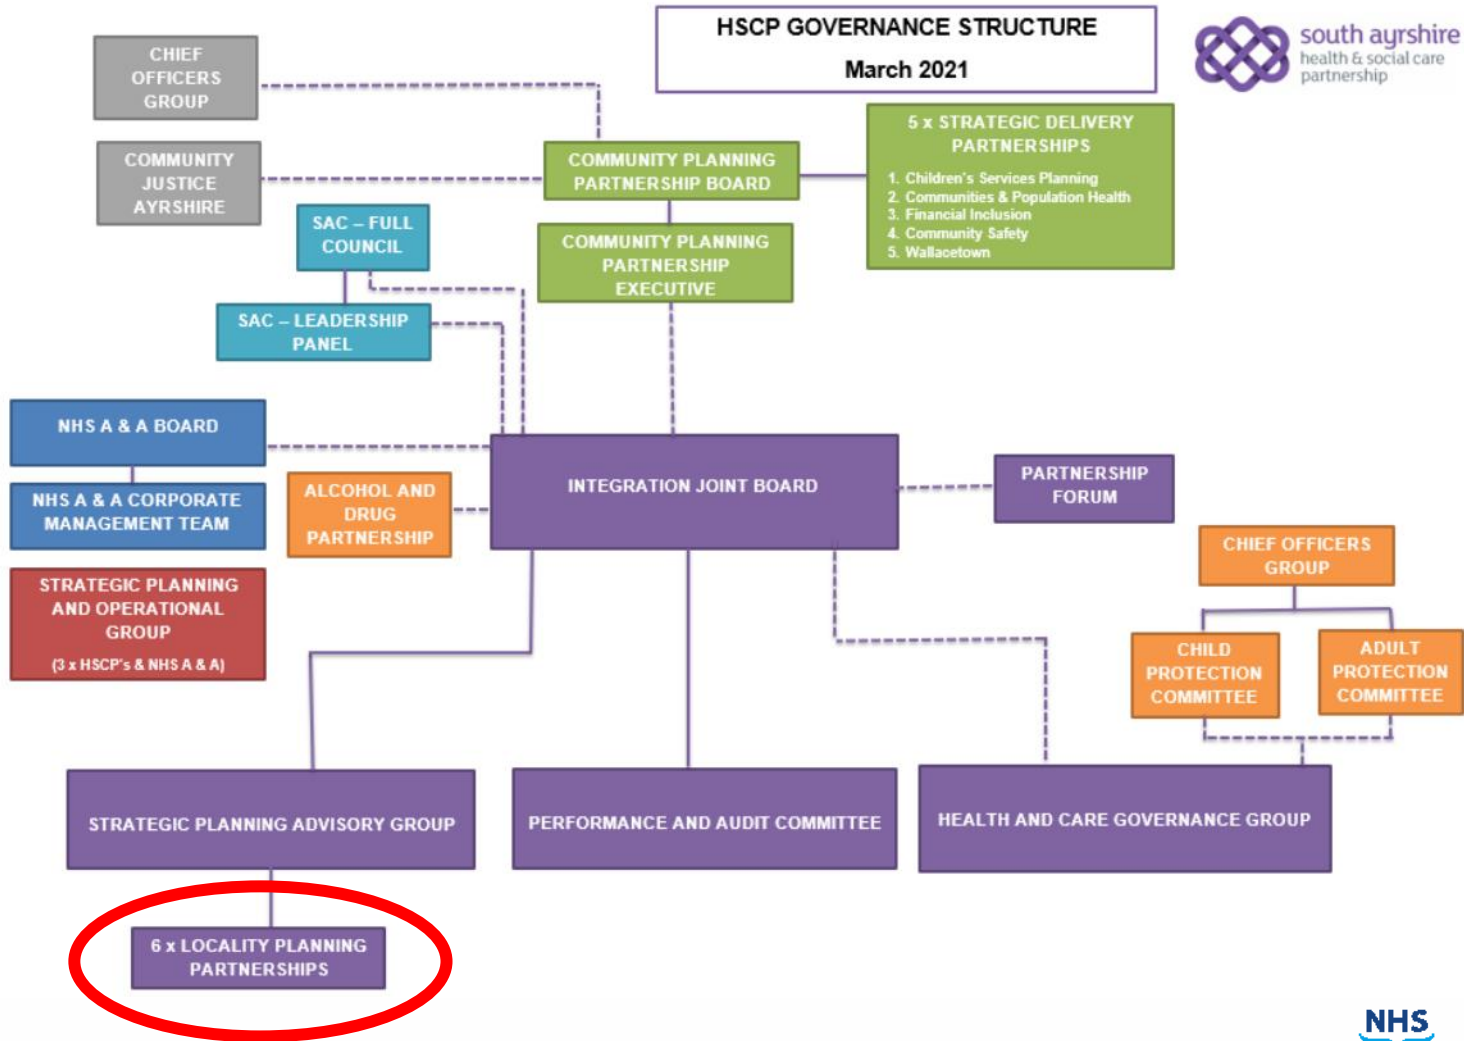

- ❖ Adults and Older People's Community Health and Care Services;
- ❖ Allied Health Professions;
- ❖ Children's Health and Care Services;
- ❖ Community Nursing; and
- ❖ Justice Services

What are Locality Planning Partnerships and what do they do?

To make informed decisions about our strategic planning and commissioning, we need to fully understand our community which can be done using a range of population data as well as our own local intelligence.

There are 6 locality areas within South Ayrshire:

- Ayr North and Villages
- Ayr South and Coylton
- Girvan and South Carrick Villages
- Maybole and North Carrick Villages
- Prestwick and Villages
- Tron and Villages

Locality Planning

Locality Planning in South Ayrshire will have two main purposes:

- to jointly assess need, prioritise and plan how all resources, irrespective of their origin, can best be deployed in pursuit of the delivery of the National and Local Outcomes; and
- to be the local focus for service delivery and support by organisations from across the sectors to the population or communities within the area.
